AUGUSTA, GA - This review only needs one word really - WOW! Lua Hadar opens a fresh new scene with her band Twist. With a powerful voice booming from the Latin heavens, Hadar spreads a rainbow of passion across the musical landscape in this one.

Smooth, swinging jazz built on a 4-octave range complimented by Hadar's powerful delivery, this record is packed with fire power spicier than any dish in a local cabana. With their sights set on the horizon, this talented group of performers brings forth the release of "Lua Hadar...with Twist."

The most honest way to describe this record is that it is simply amazing, and that played as a whole it will provide a fascinating experience. Songs of particular interest and display include "All I Want" in English, "Siboney" in Latin styles, and the smashing chords of "Vorrei" in an Italian croon. Within this web of multicultural mastery, Hadar and Twist offer a glorious ride into the passions hiding behind the hearts of everyday.

By the time listeners embark upon the power of "Hi Lilli Hi Lo / Les Chemin de l'Almour," the hooks of this heartfelt construction will have landed deeply within their innermost emotions.
